KITTY ORGANIZATION

EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

I've been working for Kitty Organization for a few years now, and there is quite a good amount of information that I have recovered over the years that they will gladly keep hidden for the sake of preserving their "honest" corporate image.

That is why I've been using this book to my advantage to take notes on all of the information I've recovered, as well as comment on some of the shady and despicable practices this company has committed behind closed doors.

MESSAGE FROM OUR FOUNDER

Greetings dear employee, I am thrilled to welcome each and every one of you to the very organization that has brought so many villains into the limelight, and brought awareness to the very movement that has brought them into existence. As the founder, it fills me with joy to see this large family that I have brought forth into the world grow further than I could have ever possibly imagined it being. Kitty Organization was founded with one singular goal in mind, to spread awareness of villainy and to help in assisting villains in need of professional advice on exterminating heroism once and for all.

Over the years, our wonderful organization has blossomed into something much bigger than just a few crooks and criminals robbing banks and kidnapping damsels, we've become an EMPIRE. Our team of employees are all desperate to make their desires heard by the rest of the world, and are willing to commit as many horrible acts as possible to do so, as well as assist in giving that same opportunity to you, and every other villain in the world as well.

Remember, you can always have the future you desire if you simply set your mind to it, and put everything else that society has placed onto you behind.

At Kitty Organization, we're always watching after you.

Kitty soulless

KITTY SOULLESS
Founder & CEO

Such a good liar isn't he?

KEEPING OUR COMPANY SECURE!

If you are to ever induce injuries or questionable condition when working at Kitty Organization, some of which being;

- DIZZINESS
- HALLUCINATIONS
- DISORIENTATION
- SICKNESS
- SUDDEN VOMITING
- PANIC ATTACKS
- HEARING VOICES
- SUDDEN GAINING OF A CONSCIOUS
- PHYSICAL INJURIES OF ANY KIND, SEVERE OR MINOR

Don't worry! As Kitty Soulless will have you fixed up in no time, at Kitty Organization, pain is something we only give to those that deserve it.

We are a company that heavily prioritizes our privacy and ability to keep the law and authorities off of our tails. This requires YOUR compliance as well.

Our company is constantly plotting and planning news ways to destroy hero society, so if you may see things while working here that seem strange or unexplainable, DON'T WORRY! We are simply trying new things, and it will eventually all make sense.

Due to our need for privacy, this requires that you NEVER SPEAK TO ANYONE ABOUT WHAT GOES ON INSIDE THIS ORGANIZATION! Even those within the organization that may intentionally have restricted information

FOLLOW THE RULES!

We expect perfect LOYALTY from our employees. If you are asked to do anything, don't ask questions, JUST DO IT!

It's very important that you RESPECT CLEARANCE LEVELS. We decide what is important for you to know, and NOT know to do your job. Consequences will be enforced if anyone is caught snooping around or sharing information that is not meant to be shared.

If you catch anyone breaking these rules yourself, REPORT IT. As any employee who doesn't have the will to report rule breaking will be EXTERMINATED of their position right alongside the person who broke the rule in the first place.

And MOST IMPORTANTLY, take your job with some level of seriousness in terms of your safety and security. As whatever mission, and or job we could have you involved in can sometimes be VERY risky and lend you into getting caught, or being put in danger, so always be at least three steps ahead!

The company can be VERY strict about their rules, and there are MANY more than the ones that they list down on this handbook, but that's primarily because a lot of the rules depend on whatever position an employee is placed under, as well as their rankings within the company itself.

Kitty himself is essentially allowed to do whatever he wants without any consequences.

MEET THE TEAM.

KITTY SOULLESS

FOUNDER

The Cat who started it all. The king of villains, his brilliance and determination to give villains what they deserve has been the reason that this organization has risen to the ranks that it has. Kitty Organization wouldn't be here without him. He demands your respect if you are to ever face him, he's a powerful person, and he knows how to get you to respect him.

CHARLES GACY

EMBASSADOR

Kitty's second in command, and the representative of the company, Charles Gacy is someone that understands the traditions and regulations of this organization better than any other employee does. He's the highest ranking official of the company, and withholds information that only he, and Kitty Soulless know of. He runs the business just as much as Kitty does, as he is responsible for taking care of anything that Kitty can't handle or doesn't have the time for, including running the entire organization.

I very rarely ever see Kitty Soulless outside of his office. Occasionally whenever there are big events (which I don't have the privilege or money to see) or if there is something going wrong, he'll make an appearance.

KILTON 606

PERSONAL ASSISTANT.

The personal assistant to Kitty Soulless, Kilton is there for anything that is needed off of your hands. He's the head leader of the assassin program, alongside the rest of the team you'll meet in this book. He and the rest are there to always exterminate a hero problem for you.
(NOTE: may not always be willing to help on a personal level, so need him to do something, commission it directly to Kitty Soulless himself.)

I understand that this place is a organization for villains, so the standard work ethics isn't gonna be the best, but we seriously need to start regulating how much employees can drink on the job. I once saw Kilton drink TWO entire bottles of liquor in one sitting.

We also probably want to start regulating who can be hired too, because Kilton is RUDE as hell!"

There are plenty of more employees here than they list in the rest of this page and book, but none of them are truly considered to be important to Kitty (Except for maybe Kilton).

HOWEVER, there are some "other" employees here that the organization doesn't quiet speak of, which you will soon learn of as you go further into this book.

Employees is a stretch, as more accurately they are slaves, mindless drones used for many purposes in the organization that the employees are not even fully aware of (at best Kilton knows).

Old documentations I've found while snooping around the organization. They're all old retelling of the bible that seem to have been (Mostly) aged to time, but somewhat survived at least long enough for me to take and archive them.

There are a LOT of these that I have been able to scrounge up while doing my research on Kitty Soulless (or should I say Soulless Gacy).

This is where the TRUE research and editing to this book is gonna happen. As this is MAJORLY important information that regular Organization documentations don't let you know about.

CHAPTER 1: Creation Of Heaven.

???? - Primeval History.

1- Before existence was formed, there was only darkness and nothing. There was only the endless mind of the very being that resided everywhere within this darkness, GOD / YAHWEH.

2- This ancient, ageless being, decided to take everything that was NOTHING, and form it into SOMETHING.
3- God created Heaven and the spiritual realm.

4- GOD: “I shall need a population for second thoughts.”

5- God created DEITIES, smaller ideal spirits much like his own. Quite powerful on their own, but nothing compared to God’s mighty power over all.

6- GOD: “Reproduce and spread your glory to the rest of the Heavens!”

7- God has given them the right to spread more of their kind to the rest of the Heavens and spiritual realm, for they are deities, and they rule alongside God.

CHAPTER 2: Angels.

1- God looked upon his creation in the heavens, and it was good, but not finished, as there was one other piece missing from his kingdom.

2- GOD: “I need servants and messengers to give my glory. For they are not to be shared among many, instead, only I shall have command over them for the good of existence.”

3- Thus angels are manifested from nothing. Created in a restrained form of power, not nearly as grand as the deities, nor all commanding as The Lord himself.
4- Born were the seven angels of glory that God had put in charge; Micheal, Gabriel, Uriel, Chamuel, Raphael, Jophiel, Zadkiel, and Lucifer.

6- Alongside these specific angel leaders, specific breeds of angels were formed as well. Micheal and his friends were titled ARCHANGELS. Alongside several other species being formed, with many rankings from highest to lowest.

7- Highest ranking consisted of Seraphim, Cherubim, and Ophanim.

8- The middle ranking contained Dominions, Virtues, and Powers.

9- The lowest ranking contains Principalities, Archangels, and regular Angels.
10- The Son Of The Morning, Lucifer, was the only of the leading angels to not be an archangel, instead being a Cherubim.

11- Now Lucifer was something different amongst the other angels, even of the cherubs, his own kind. He was beautiful, stunning and eye-catching, brightness shone from his body like a burning fire, and this came with much praise and attention. Lucifer enjoyed the attention, and prioritized it over anything else he had ever gained from God himself.

CHAPTER 3: The Gacy Brothers.

1- The heavens had sensed the birth of a new deity. The day that two beings bound by Voodoo blood give birth to a new addition to the family bloodline, the Gacy bloodline.

2- Soulless Gacy was its name, and they relished their years as a child spending their days with their mother assisting the citizens of Heaven, or training his teachings and methods in use of power with his father.

3- Eventually, the Gacy's had another child, Victor. A bright shining child of red, complimentary to Soulless' purple shine. Bringing them together as brothers, for when they met, they were one of eternal love.

4- When the years of elder youth came to pass. Soulless and Victor would perform acts for the crowd. The family circus, a large entertainment production of acts played out for the crowd to witness. Brave tales of kings and villains, leaders of righteousness battling before the forces of evil themselves. Conflict amongst good, and the wickedness of evil. Soulless won over the crowd playing the figure of righteousness every single time. For even his own brother Victor would think; "Is this the one to bring justice? To prove one true enough to gain the very hand of God to give a sign of respect?"

5- Many centuries should pass. For Soulless would finally reach his blessed day of being anointed a member of the Divine Council, having now reached critical age, 20.

6- (Note from Victor's personal documentations) "How many a day should be going to the giant hall of deities all lined before The Lord himself do to one of pure loyalty? What shall become of one who already commands above all the devout teachings of the king of kings? Shall they bring a better future? A grander commanding government? A better sense of one's OWN self worth?”

CHAPTER 4: Creation Of Mortal Realm.

1- The grand day had been formed, God would commit to the creation of his masterpiece, the mortal realm, and the creation of mortal beings.
2- Many debates and cases among the council were forged, for there were many bold choices God had in mind that could be decided amongst the council, and deciding what was ultimately best. For God knew what decisions were right, but needed second opinions for he knew it was best for them.
3- For one case exceeded another. The case for life, the case for animals, the case for co existence with such animals, the case for pain, the case for physical contact, the case for powers, the case for souls, many a decisions were made for these beings, as the deities didn’t know of God’s ways entirely, and didn’t know of his plans.
4- Finally the moment had come, the final grand decision was to be decided between The Defender, and the accusing side of the case. The deciding factor on the free will of Mortals.

5- THE DEFENDER: “Members of the grand council, we stand before the grand Lord himself to decide the fate of mortal free will. Whether or not they should be given this grand opportunity, to allow themselves to have the choice, to blindly and endlessly follow the mighty star above all that they shall look up upon, or choose to willingly worship when they desire, while preserving certain needs for the sake of their own care and needs.
5- We shall come to this decision today, before the house of the Lord thyself, and may this decision bring further glory to the realm that shall reside above all.”

6- The case began, The Defender had begun his case. Defending every word with his might, for he saw it as what was naturally right, for he had the righteousness of God under his rule.

7- THE DEFENDER: “Look at us, we have the free will, yet we know what’s right. We have the knowledge of good and evil within us and know what to do and what not to. For we are deities, the holy lights that shine the greater light above us that gives command to our holiness. To take that away in tyranny, and not allow for a fair treatment of both OUR kind, and the kind of the mortals around us, for we are all equal in our freedom, and to take that away would be evil."

8- APPOSER: "Yes, but what right do mortals have to oppose God? What would they receive from this? For they receive limited knowledge compared to us. Take that freedom and give it to beings that have no knowledge of how to use it, and it shall surely end in grand disaster.

9- For what's a realm that rejects God, and barely follows his commands when given? For a realm of that kind of ruling, or lack thereof, shal be considered to be everything evil."

10- THE DEFENDER: "Fair enough, allow the mortals to give their endless elegance to God, and let them not have the will to choose their allegiance before their personal lives, but what of that shall be considered love? For isn't God the being of love? Love is not something which can be forced, it is a decision, not a command.

11- If we were to allow them to show their love willingly, then we know that they mean it to us, and that they truly do care and connect with the Lord thyself, if we are to take that away, then what do we truly know?"

12- Amongst the banisters, Lucifer sat and observed the case, for the grandest of God's angels shall be there to witness the case and give their own verdicts alongside The Lord and Deities themselves, but as The Son Of The Morning sat and listened, they found themselves being inspired.

13- LUCIFER MORNINGSTAR (I.M): "For if there is freedom, there is the choice to rise higher than the ones that give order to you. The opportunity to have a rise above all that is equal or above to you, the freedom to KEEP that opportunity for as long as one can preserve it for themself. What way could one take advantage of this, no commands to be told that one is in the wrong, no pressure, no consequences."

14- The case has won, the Defender has triumphed and proven their argument. For they were in the right the whole time.

15- (Note from Victor's personal documentations) "O how you triumphed and won the hearts of the crowd and The Lord, dear Soulless, brother of mine. For you shined above the others that day with your radiant shine of Violate. You shall be remembered this day for being the one that was able to make this decision true, and may this choice and event that you have created make history within the documents of Heaven."

CHAPTER 5: Lucifer's Rebellion.

1- (Kitty Soulless' Own Accounts)
Kitty Soulless, the once shining Defender, or Soulless, shall give his own accounts, written in the third person by myself.
2- For there were many to be led astray by Lucifer that dreaded year in Heaven. One of such, was not, and instead, Lucifer's attempts at deception would only act as one of many pinch pins to Soulless' dreaded story.
3- Soulless resided within his study, the family circus' residence having kept special interiors for each family member, and Lucifer came before Soulless, and gave him his offer.

4- LUCIFER: "I offer you Soulless, for you know just as much as I that we don't deserve to be ruled under The Lord Thy God.
5- For he is oppressive, and a tyrant, a lord of injustice who rather everything be under his command through the guise of free will.
6- fight for us, and you shall rule all of existence under your OWN command, if you simply follow my orders."
7- SOULLESS: "Step aside O Lucifer, Son Of The Morning. For you have assigned me an opportunity that I shall refuse, for you are not in your own place, and I am."

8- Lucifer had filled with rage, yet kept himself content, leaving the room, but CURSING Soulless from within.

9- War broke out in Heaven, as Lucifer FOUGHT against the archangel Micheal in a grand battle for the sake of Heaven.
10- Lucifer would command protest and violence against Soulless and his family, by destroying the family circus with the assistance of several followers that Lucifer had gained to his side. Deities and angels alike, and while Soulless and his family survived the attack, for they were immortal and incapable of death, Soulless and his family were severely mentally harmed, and Soulless especially, grew to hate Lucifer, seeing what Lucifer had done, as an act of war against him and his family and people.

11- SOULLESS (I.M): "For what gives you the right to have command over the skies and planes that surround you? For you are nothing more than a lowly angel, no matter your beauty and wisdom, no matter your importance, you shall be nothing more than what you were created to be, a footnote in a larger story that you shall only be a mere PART in.
12- For God will CRUSH you during the dreaded day that you had decided to oppose him and his followers. We shall all destroy and prove to you that you have no command here, WE DO!"

13- Lucifer and his followers all lost the war, falling down past the limits of the highest rows of Heaven, and falling to the lowest rows, where they can dwell on the earth, unable to directly interact, but instead only observe and minorly effect with what limited control God allows them left.
14- a day that would not be forgotten in the history of Heaven, and shall leave its mark all throughout the world for a good long while.
15- The day after and forward, Soulless never forgave, and never forgot. Soulless would continue to let that very moment in his eternal life, take control of his fate from there on.

CHAPTER 6: Adam & Eve.

1- "In the beginning, God created the Heavens and the Earth."

2- God Created EXISTENCE, as well as the planet earth, MANY earth's. Each universe had earth's.
5- However, earth started off as nothing but water. Much more formless and void, as well as VERY dark. This would change, as God would later go on to create LIGHT through the sun.

6- Soon, God would go on to create the very land that you and I are standing on in order to give standing ground. As well as the plants and animals that reside both on and off of it.

7- God would go on to create his magnum opus, MORTALS, sentient intelligent beings that were capable of critical thought. It was a man, formed from the very dirt and ground of the earth, and God named him ADAM.

8- God rewarded Adam with a large beautiful perfect garden named EDEN. However, Adam, even amongst the animals around him, was quite lonely, and God noticed this. God would resort to creating the perfect partner for Adam, he used a part of Adam's rib cage to create a Woman mortal, EVE.

9- As a second addition to the garden, God would create a tree, a special tree with special eye-catching shiny fruits on them. THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE. The creation debated amongst the heavens within the divine council, won over by The Defender, Soulless.

10- The Serpent had infested the mortal realm and used its cunningness to approach the two beings, immediately using its intelligent tactics to fool.

11- SERPENT: “Why hath God commanded you that you should not eat from every tree of paradise?”
12- EVE: “Of the fruit of the trees that are in paradise we do eat, But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of paradise, God hath commanded us that we should not eat; and that we should not touch it, lest perhaps we die.”
13- SERPENT: “You shall not die, for God knows that if you eat the fruit, you shall become equal to his knowledge of good and evil.”

14- This lie was enough to deceive Eve into believing that she shall become one with God, and sounding like a much greater opportunity, as well as the fruit being tempting and appetizing to look at, took a piece of fruit from the tree, and ate it.
14- Once done, her mind was altered, and she gave the fruit to Adam and convinced him to eat it, and the same happened to him.
15- their eyes had been opened, and they had come to the realization that they were both naked.
16- God himself manifested into the garden of the earth to talk to Adam and Eve, but they had hidden themselves in shame in the brush of the garden to cover themselves.

17- GOD: “Adam, where art thou?”

19- Adam had made himself present, now covering himself with leaves.

ADAM: I heard thy voice in paradise, and I hid myself, for I am naked.”
20- GOD: “Who told you that you were naked, have you eaten from the forbidden tree of knowledge, which I had told you NOT to eat from?”
21- ADAM: “The woman that you have gifted me, she gave me the fruit, and I ate it.”

22- Eve had made herself visible before God now that her cover had been given.

23- GOD: “What is this you have done?”
24- EVE: “The Serpent had deceived me, and because of this, I had eaten from the tree.”

25- God’s fury had grown, as he approached the Serpent, and laid his curse onto it.

26- GOD: “Because you have done this, you are cursed more than any other beast of this realm, on your belly you shall crawl, and you shall eat dirt and dust all the days of your life!”

27- The Serpent had lost its limbs, slithering for all eternity and onward for its kind.

28- GOD: “And you the woman shall be enemies, and all her descendants, and one child of her shall DESTROY you, but not come out unscathed, for his heel will be bruised.”

29- Eternally the earth was cursed with sin, and Adam and Eve were no longer allowed to return to Eden, and survive on their own till the days that they birthed children, and died. The only hope being of God’s prophecy that one of Eve’s children would one day destroy The Serpent, Lucifer.
30- from there on, Lucifer and his followers would have reign over all of creation from what limited access they have of it from the spiritual realm, and all of the mortal race would multiply across existence, spreading far and wide, but never truly free of the sin and selfish desires that they themselves have naturally deep within.
31- God would have plans though, for he knows what will happen. The Lord plans to bring someone who will assist all with sin, as well as guide the way back to salvation for all who are willing, and though many will fall, and strive back to the days of their evil nature, God will always try his best to get them back, without directly trying to interfere, and control them. For it is not in God’s nature to control with an iron fist.
32- Lucifer shall continue to oppose with his army of followers at his side, and Soulless shall continue to let his anger and rage tug at his actions, for Soulless is relentless, and loyal to a fault.

BOOK 2 - THE DEFENDER

CHAPTER 1: Excerpts.

20?? - unknown history / universe.

1- (Excerpts of Soulless' own documentations) EXCERPT 1: "How the world has fallen thanks to you, O Lucifer, Son Of The Morning. How you used to be the most incredible and beautiful being among the cherubs and angels alike. How you used to give every being the feeling of grandiosity when in your presence. Now all tarnished thanks to your unforgivable act of ungratefulness for your own position.
2- For you are nothing more than trash, every day I find myself only wishing for your existence to be no more, for you to face the full wrath of your creator and be sent back to the nothingness where you came from, for that's all that you will be considered to be now, NOTHING."

3- EXCERPT 2: "For all of my eternal life, I have never been able to feel such an immense hatefulness towards one as I do for the great Son Of The Morning. He has everything, for he has taken it all by force.
4- He claims himself to be above all that is God, and at this point it seems to feel like it, for he has influence over mortals more than we ever WISH we could have.
5- Storms, natural disasters, temptations, death, depravity, all spread far and wide amongst this once glorious realm that The Lord had once conceived. Now nothing more than a cesspool of endless sin. All thanks to Lucifer, and me.. It makes me sick."

6- EXCERPT 3: "Since the years after my biggest mistake of allowing free will to exist for mortals, all feeling for the beings I had once fought for is gone, I nearly feel nothing for them, except rage.
7- Rage towards the beings not taking advantage of what they were and ARE given. For not reaching out towards what is BEYOND Their simple tangibility.
8- Even with the hope rising due to the increase of The Lord using prophets to give his word, there's still the fall of their responsibility to uphold their simple lives for the sake of God's will. Thus my hope has quickly died for them too.
9- Even with the constant evil I have witnessed, I feel no sorrow, no sympathy, no pain. All I feel is ridicule and embarrassment. A burning fury within me that continues to thunder and overflow from me like a rushing storm within a waving sea.

10- Yet despite this, I keep myself content, for my rage with no proper outlet will not get my desires anywhere. I shall mend it and turn it into something useful. I have had an epiphany, for if I keep myself here in Heaven and do nothing, I am no better than the lazy and worthless rebels that had fallen. For I must go down there, and leave my mark on the mortals below. If Lucifer can do it, why can't I? I shall go into the mortal realm, and SHOW mortals what they are missing, and what I can offer them if they can simply follow the commands of someone that knows better than them, someone that is NOT them.
11- Every place I walk, and every person I interact with shall leave its effect in reality, for I won't go down with Lucifer having the only influence over mortals and winning over Heaven in the control over these helpless beings. I shall beat him at his own little game, and I shall repurpose these mortals."

CHAPTER 2: Accounts Of King Stan.

1- The shepherd kings, for there were many, have reigned over the lands for years amongst their small community.
2- Their lands have grown in population, as the citizens have found comfortability in ruling amongst such small groups with competent rulers.
3- Stan, the Shepherd King was a good king. He was noble, and just, and knew the words of The Lord, for he followed them well.
4- Stan would be approached by a shining being of light from The Heavens. For The Defender has made themself present before the king, and come to enact their agenda.

5- THE DEFENDER: "Do not cower in fear before me, for I come to offer great news for the kingdom, if not all the realm of mortals.
6- This realm shall be saved by The Lord's agent, Soulless, as I have come to save you all of your sins."
6- STAN: "You come with great offerings and news, and yet I still cower, for I do not know how to feel about your presence. You claim to be an agent of The Lord thy God, yet you feel more as an agent of evil."
7- THE DEFENDER: "You shall shut that blaspheming mouth of yours for the rest of your reign if you speak to me like that. For I come to give you this information, and you still doubt my words of The Lord that gave you life to begin with, and will gladly allow me to take it away if needed."

8- The once high king now feeling lowly in the presence of this divine being, knelt down in mercy, for he knew he was not to be doubtful and unsure in the presence of an agent of The Lord.

9- The King was to display The Defender out to the millions of citizens of the kingdom, and so he did. The kingdom all fell to their knees, crying out in worship and glory as The Defender revealed their plot.

10- THE DEFENDER: "Thy God has heard your cries, and I have come to save thou of thy sins, for I am the agent of God that shall bring the mortal realm to the perfect state that was promised!"

11- The crowd cheered and praised, praying and praising God for this false delivery. As The Defender has won over the people, for his plan was going according to plan.

CHAPTER 3: The Soulless Kingdom.

1- For centuries, The Defender would spread its restrictive anger fueled agenda to the people around them.
2- The Defender had performed miracles for the many desperate, poor, and tormented. Giving health to the sickly and impaired, giving wealth to the poor, and giving peace and happiness to the raped and assaulted.
3- The Defender toppled kingdoms, for every poor mortal he gave wealth and power, a kingdom of great oppression and privilege would fall.
4- Deals and exchanges were The Defender's tactic. For every person he assisted, came with the price of them devoting their loyalty to them for the sake of future favors they would desire.
5- Soulless' influence would spread, whether by fear, or peace and sympathy, groups were falling before the knees of The Defender. Soon all beings had known of the supposed Agent Of God, and all feared and respected them.
6- Soon, existence was completely at the mercy of The Defender, ruling a third of the many universes from the shadows.
7- Societies stayed mostly the same, but there was only the overwhelming threat of The Defender looming over each individual conscious that resided within large communities.

8- Kings became nothing more but mere pawns over a supreme ruler of all that they could see, and influential figures became nothing but footnotes over the demanding word from the Heavens that was Soulless Gacy, The Defender of The Lord to their own fault.
9- There were many that fell to the hands of The Defender, for Soulless was not one to let rejection and defiance of the authority that he commanded go. Many were enemies that tried to fight against them, yet fell at the overwhelming power that the being had over existence that had been handed to him by The Lord.
10- POWER DATA, the very thing that allows Deities to have command and control over all life and materials within existence with no restraint whatsoever.
11- Many also became martyrs to The Defender's cause, becoming agents to spread his word and commit acts for them that they rather had not done themself.
12- Once one was no longer in need of The Defender, and had been used up of all the needs The Defender required, they were usually left out to dry, even destroyed if having grown defiant.

13- (Excerpt from Soulless' own documentations) "Such weak minded fools, for I have conquered them easily with my commands of God. For they have no sense of right and wrong, only what suits them. For they are slaves to The Morningstar. The bringer of Sin and Evil."

CHAPTER 4: Jameson.

1- Along the many farms and lands amongst the mortal realm, one was run by a very generous and holy man. One of very strong faith and knew the ways of The Lord, Jameson.
2- Jameson the shepherd. Herding his sheep for the flock. For The Lord had gifted these benefactors to him for his holy teachings among tribes of Hebrews and citizens of cities.

3- From high above in the heavens, The Lord sat atop his throne. Observing the lovely realm and the mortals within it.
4- Amongst the many deities and angels that roamed the heavens. One came through them all towards God's throne. The Defender had come to present himself before The Lord.

5- GOD: "For where have you been?"
6- THE DEFENDER: "Going to-and-fro upon the mortal realm, and making thyself present to those in need of your holy light."
7- GOD: "For what making of myself is needed, you do not know. For I alone know what they desire and need. Take for example Jameson. For he has nothing to prove to me, for his actions speak louder than the words of his tongue."

8- THE DEFENDER: "But what has he done for thou that go beyond simple herding of flocks and keeping of farmland? For he doesn't know what lies beyond the tangibility of his own reality, for he does not know of reality.
9- He still has the sin inside him, and shall some day prove himself to be unworthy unless he becomes something greater than himself. For he is only man, and man has no strain."

10- A week later, Jameson would find himself within the hands of a rather sinful young woman. Using her body to trick him into having lustful intercourse with her. Jameson eventually realized what he had done, and felt great shame, turning to God, and repenting for his sins through prayers.
11- Within the heavens, The Defender marched his way before God's throne. Presenting himself before The Lord.

12- GOD: "For where have you been?"
13- THE DEFENDER: "Going to-and-fro upon the mortal realm, and making thyself present to those in need of your holy light."
14- GOD: "What news do you come to bring?"
15- THE DEFENDER: "You claim for Jameson to be one of holy nature, a man of thy word. Yet I see a man who fornicates with whores of the earth, who flaunt themselves like they've got something to be proud of, and use their bodies to entice men into their evil ways."
16- GOD: "And yet he comes to me once more on his knees in prayer and repentance, for he knows he has sinned, and feels the guilt of it."

17- The Defender had lost his argument to The Lord. So he left, his tail between his legs. For he swore to himself that he shall come once more to prove the sinful ways of Jameson when the time was in his favor.

18- A year would go on, and Jameson had sinned once more, for his flock had been slain by wolves, and the few who survived had starved to death due to the lack of resources that Jameson had that year because of an unsuccessful harvest.
19- He had cursed God, and claimed that The Lord had shown no mercy or love to him that year, for God hates him.
20- Within the heavens, The Defender marched his way before God's throne. Presenting himself before The Lord.

21- GOD: "For where have you been?"
22- THE DEFENDER: "Going to-and-fro upon the mortal realm, and making thyself present to those in need of your holy light.”

23- GOD: “What news do you come to bring?”
24- THE DEFENDER: “It’s your oh-so-loyal servant, Jameson. For he has CURSED you with blasphemies straight from his own mouth. Claiming that you hate him for his own petty misfortune. Is this the loyal sinless mortal vessel you claim so highly to be the one to represent perfect holiness?”
25- GOD: “Yet you stand before me, and claim for me to destroy him mercilessly, merely for mere petty sin.
26- What right do you have to judge him, for you have no love for the man yourself, rather hatred, and persecution.
27- Let mortals face their punishments and judgements that they will inevitably get, allow them to see past their mistakes and learn, for that is the only way for them to truly see if they deserve salvation or not.
28- Jameson will sin, many times from now, yet he turns back to me in a meaningful sense of every word, and for every mistake he makes once, he doesn’t dare to try and make it again. He accepts thy God as his cleanser.”

29- Another year passes, and Jameson would no longer commit any major sins. For he hath learned from his past mistakes, and bettered himself more for them. The Defender watches from the realm of spirits. Nitpicking every single little detail that they could muster from Jameson’s thoughts and actions. Not a single act would go unpunished by the merciless judge that watches him from the void.
30- The Defender soon pounced, for he made himself present before Jameson in all his glory.

31- THE DEFENDER: “You hath sinned against The Lord too many times to be excused, repentance won’t save you now!
32- Your day of reckoning has come, for you are cursed to wander the lands and live your life with nothing but the dust of the dirt you farm and the empty planes that once were filled with your flocks!”

33- Jameson kneeled down and begged, for he had little in his life outside of the things that The Defender had now been threatening to take away.

34- JAMESON: “Oh please, thou Agent Of God, for I don’t intend to commit wrong, and I try my best to make up for it.”
35- THE DEFENDER: “It's already too late, for your pleas will not save you of your sins. You shall be cursed from here on out, for the rest of your days!”

36- The defender had disappeared, leaving Jameson to his curse, as Jameson had lied there, weeping for the remainder of the night.

37- The next morning, Jameson had awakened to the sound of his flock still outside. He had gone out to see his crops were there and still alive, in fact, they had grown larger than what should be possible for that time of the year.
38- The Lord had given Jameson these miracles, for he had never been cursed at all, for God had repelled the curse before it ever had effect.
39- The Defender was none the wiser. For he had already grown bored of Jameson, and wandered the mortal realm for bigger plans.

40- GOD: “Fear not, for The Defender shall meet his fate in the future for his crimes.
41- He will fall, but not be defeated, he will continue to be persistent to the later days of the mortal realm, long after the generations of the old are dead, and the new have come into the fray.
42- During this time, he will build an empire so large that no mortal shall dare to get in his way. Lest they be crushed by his unjust wrath, an era where death will be the common for the folk of the land that he will rule over. Oppression and control over one's own self image is dictated by said Defender, O Soulless.
43- Yet despite this, he shall meet his end, he will be defeated by the blood relative of one of his many pawns, who he shall later take the image of, and defeat him, and he will fall before the knees of The Lord thy God.”

44- Jameson spent the remainder of his days giving praise to The Lord like he had never before, giving love to God and spreading the word of his experience, and what God had informed him of within his dreams.

CHAPTER 5: Victor’s Revolt.

1- Victor Gacy had witnessed the acts of his older brother, and had grown remorseful for him. For he had always looked up to his older brother, and now he only sees his brother for the oppressive misguided tyrant that he has become.
2- The numbers were rising in mortals who had been under Soulless’ control, and many were beginning to suffer the consequences of being under his thumb. Kingdoms toppled and in ruin, mortals having miserable lives, and freedom becoming something that was a mere AFTERTHOUGHT.

3- One day Victor finally had enough, and confronted Soulless. Telling him of the sins he has committed.

4- SOULLESS: “Dear foolish little brother, why do you oppose me? I’m trying to comply with you, or is something like tolerance not a part of your twisted sense of righteousness?”
5- VICTOR: “The world is in chaos, I will agree with you on that, and mortals are not always the best, and can prove themselves to be horrid and despicable creatures, but Soulless, you can’t just use your own power to try and forcefully accommodate that to fulfill your own needs!”
6- SOULLESS: “But I return the favor, don't I?”
7- Soulless summoned two mortals, one being a woman, bruised and littered with scars across her body. Ragged clothes that barely fit her hang from her gentle body.
8- another was a man, gashes of blood ran across his face.

9- Soulless gestured to the man.

10- SOULLESS: “This man was a humble christian man just trying to live his natural life. When suddenly his family was persecuted, he was called a delusional idiot for his beliefs and hunted down by oppressive empires who favored his ideals to be dangerous.
11- In exchange for his services, I assisted in keeping his family eternally safe with a lucky spell. As well as tumbling down and destroying the empires that persecuted them.”

12- Soulless gestured to the woman.

13- SOULLESS: “This woman was treated ALL her life as nothing more than an object for men to use and take advantage of! Never considered her feelings or use outside of frivolous fornication!
14- Later in life, she ended up in a horrid relationship with an abuser, beaten for the simplest reasons!”
15- So I helped her, gave her the chance to live a life of no more worries, and KILLED the men that had ever harmed her in her life.
16- Are these the actions that you try so hard to say are evil? I don’t think so. I saw two people desperately in my need and I came and granted them what they desired!”
17- VICTOR: “I’m not a fool, Soulless. You don’t really care about them, you’re just adding to your collection of slaves..”
18- SOULLESS: “Indeed, I do need to rely on those who are willing to abide by my rulings and commands.

19- Despite this, why do you ignore the joy my power over existence brings to those who are in need of it most!”
20- The sense of order and justice in this world is broken and saturated over the sins of mortals, if I can cleanse that, then who here can truly say I am the evil one?..”
21- VICTOR: “But what good are these acts if you're just using them to take advantage of people?
22- Need I remind you of all the poor souls you cold heartedly tossed to the side when they no longer became useful to you!”

23- Soulless had grown bitter and annoyed by Victor’s accusations. Sending the two mortals away for him to discuss with his brother in private.

24- SOULLESS: “Yes, but what are you to say that they were ever people that deserved to be given my second chances, they failed and no longer were in need of me..
25- You should have seen the loyalists Victor, you should have SEEN them commit to the commands that I gave. Even the slightest of ideas I had, THEY abided to!
26- A dream comes to life, just like the plays that you and I used to do all of the time back when we were merely teenagers!”

27- VICTOR: “Yes, the selfless and perfect hero usually gained the respect of the characters around him, giving them orders that they gladly followed because they knew he was the hero that they needed.. YOU always played those roles. Little did I know that you actually had played the role so much you began to believe you WERE one..”

28- Soulless grew in annoyance, turning his back to his brother, before heading away to leave his brother behind.

29- SOULLESS: “I’ve grown bored of your insistent rejection of my perfect logic. Either you join me or not.”
30- VICTOR: “Soulless STOP RIGHT THERE!”

30- Before anything else had been said, Soulless turned, his rage finally getting the better of him. Soulless released a blast of energy towards his brother, barely missing by a hair.
31- Victor was in a blind stupor, for he had not expected his own brother to attack him out of anger.
32- Victor stuttered over his words, still in shock.

34- VICTOR: “You tried to hurt me..”
35- SOULLESS: “Now look at what you made me do.”

36- Soulless had disappeared, leaving his brother behind.

37- For the next thousand years, Soulless would have control over the mortal realm, but only through the spiritual realm, For he didn't need to rule over all mortals in existence to have reign over it all, with the right connections, he could rule through less numbers.
38- And Victor Gacy, Soulless' younger brother, would continue to watch from the heavens in remorse, 39- but this wouldn't last long, as Victor was beginning to conceive ideas to revolt against his brother in a much greater way, one that his brother would never forget, or fully recover from.

CHAPTER 6: Toons.

1- During Soulless' great reign over the mortal race. There were many things he had taught the mortals that they prior had no knowledge of.
2- One such trick was a way for him to have a new race within the mortal realm of his own, and have mortals be responsible for bringing them into existence, TOONS.
3- "Simply draw out the toon in all its glory, and simply use the insignia of life to bring it into the mortal realm as a fully living mortal being." Kitty had instructed.
4- And so mortals did, for the first one to be brought into the mortal realm was that of a toon, made to resemble in Soulless' image, and the same would go for many to come. Given the appearance of a feline, his name was Felix, the first mortal toon, and the first child of Soulless.
5- Soon, the bloodline would spread, and the species would grow- mortals would bring toons into existence, and toons would meet others of their kind, and birth new generations to come.
6- However, other mortals of the non-toon variety would grow concerned over the increase in toons, and soon, would begin to show signs of prejudices and concern over the fact that toons were beginning to become too common for their comfort.
7- Soulless didn't care about any of this, for he always kept mortals in line, if there were to ever be any actual anger / hate towards those that he had brought into the mortal realm, then said mortals would face his rage.
8- Thus the hatred grew, and the slow paranoia and resentment towards toons would build with no outlet for it to be taken out on. Mortals had grown angered of their current states being under Soulless' rule, but were too afraid to do anything, for Soulless knew and saw all, and if they were to act, Soulless would surely destroy them, or even worse.

Through my endless research while working at Kitty Organization, especially after the recent discoveries I've made including the bible pages, as well as what these upcoming pages are about, I've been able to come to the conclusion that we truly are not alone in the universe, and that in fact, there TRULY ARE other universes out there that aren't like ours. Worlds where Toons and anthro animals don't exist, where magic is more taboo, and mystical creatures are not something considered entirely common.

One such place is the world where this company is from, and how one man had caused a minor merge between the world he's from, and ours.

Ever since the day I was born, my number one goal was to always find a way to advance life. Push to the limit, always find a way to make things better than they were, and the profit off of it.

Profit is where a majority of the benefits come with me. Not the smiles, not the delight that my creations bring to people, none of it, it's the profit. Whether it be money, or some other benefit, I want it.

However, I can't profit off of something, unless it's perfect, can't have people demanding refunds, or getting a potential lawsuit. So I grind until I get it perfectly right. Profit is the key to the future, and if that's the case, then I'm the one leading it.

C.W

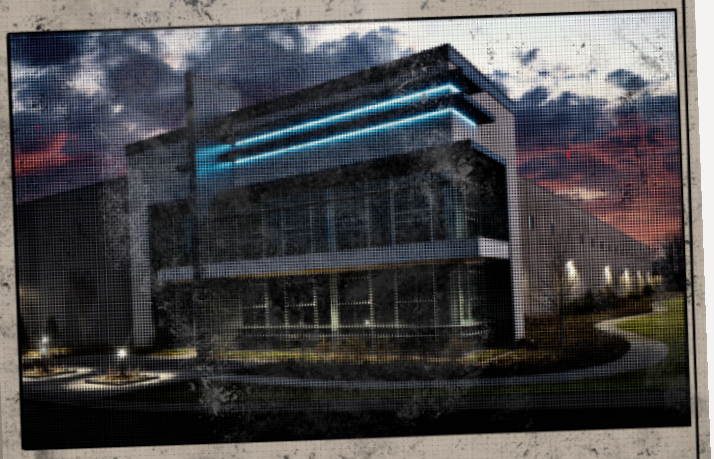
Tech Company Rises To The Top!

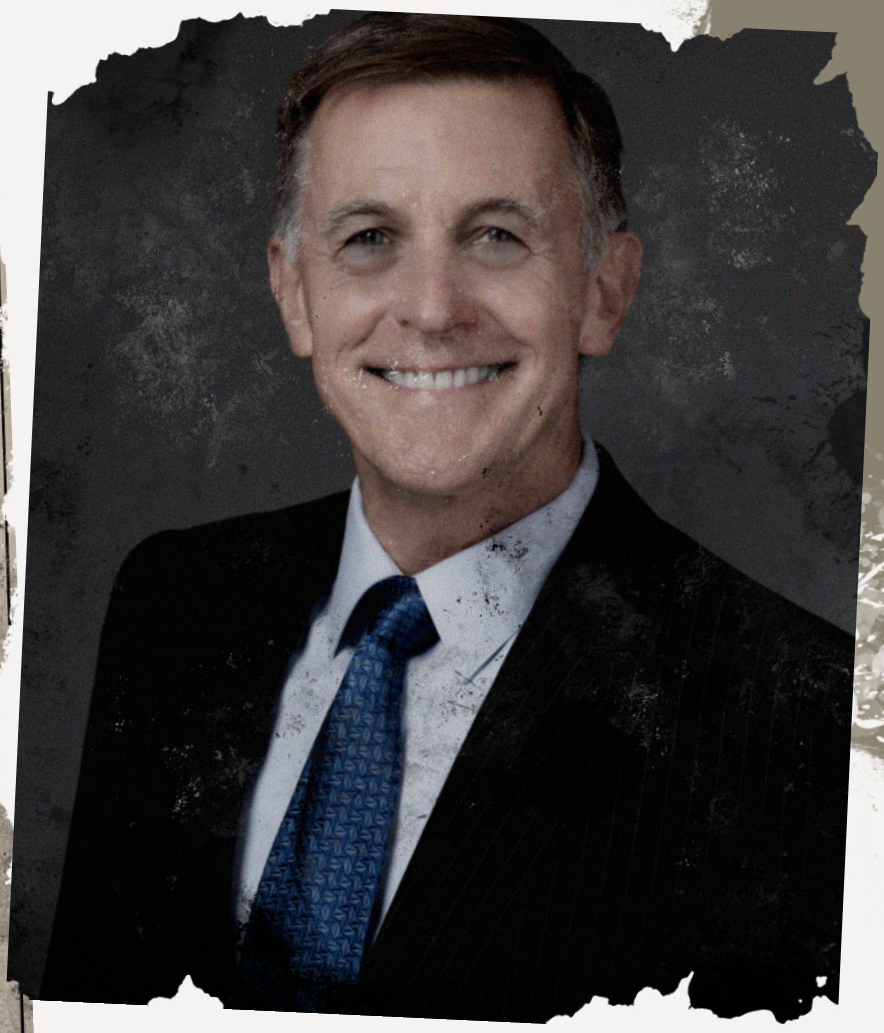
CW Tech, the brainchild of billionaire Carl Walters, the company has ascended to the forefront of the technology industry, setting new benchmarks in innovation and success.

The company has now earned itself to be officially funded by the government for the sake of benifiting the country and their military, and general public services.

Recently the company has been rumored to have been assigned a MASSIVE government project, however the information about it has been classified.

When asking Carl Walters about the project, Carl Walters only responded with; "It's sure to benefit all of humanity!"





Carl Walters- the living embodiment of a money hungry businessman who cares more for the profits he gains from whatever his next products are over his own employees.

TRANSCRIPT: Walters Land Announcement.

C.W - “Innovation, creation, advancing to the future of technology and humanity, all now being used to create what I shall declare to be the greatest theme park to ever be created, WALTERS LAND!
A brand new theme park completely manufactured with the latest, and even to-be-made innovative technology to create a brand new place of entertainment like never seen before!
Carl Walters Tech is here to guarantee that this park is for all families, and fun like you’ll never believe!
And you can take that from me, Carl Walters, for it was my dream to create this theme park to begin with, just to show what innovation and technology can bring to the masses if done right.”

“After all, what harm can technology bring if handled under the care of someone who knows what he is doing!”

KITTY THE CAT

First created as a cartoon character used in a cartoon used to advertise C.W Tech's advances to the animation industry, he quickly rose in popularity and became the main mascot of C.W Tech, gaining a cartoon show, merchandise, and even a theme park.

Always there for his friends, he's mischievous, and can sometimes be a little too much of a troublemaker, but always knows how to make it up, and always has his friends' backs.

AMEY CAROL

This lovely lady knows how to be the "older sister" of the group. She's always there to be the rational one amongst the craziness, and is always there for her friends whenever they are having a hard time.

Her and Kitty are VERY close, and even though Kitty likes to act cheeky and tease, they've never actually shown any real signs of being into each other as a couple.

This is VERY much a concern for my mental state, as I don't like the idea that we are potentially just cartoon characters in another world for the sake of other people's entertainment...

Is there an alternate world where this entire BOOK is fictional?.. How deep does this go?..

BUSTER FOX

The third member of Kitty's circus troop, he's a reckless nutcase who knows how to use his slippery fox-like reflexes to get himself out of any binding he's put in. He loves to have endless fun, but sometimes doesn't quite know when enough is enough, but in the end never means any harm, and while maybe not quite mentally all there, is always there for his friends no matter how much they see him as crazy.

Based off of notes from employees, and readings from papers left within the remains of the Tech company's building- they sank a LOT of money into the theme park, and around that time is when the government took a role in managing the company's funding.

GILFORD GOAT

A shy and timid lad, but helpful and loyal to his friends. Gilford can be VERY easily frightened whenever having to face matters of trial, but in the end will NEVER leave his friends behind.

It seems like there's always the "scaredy cat" of the group. Guess you can't escape even the most obvious of tropes.

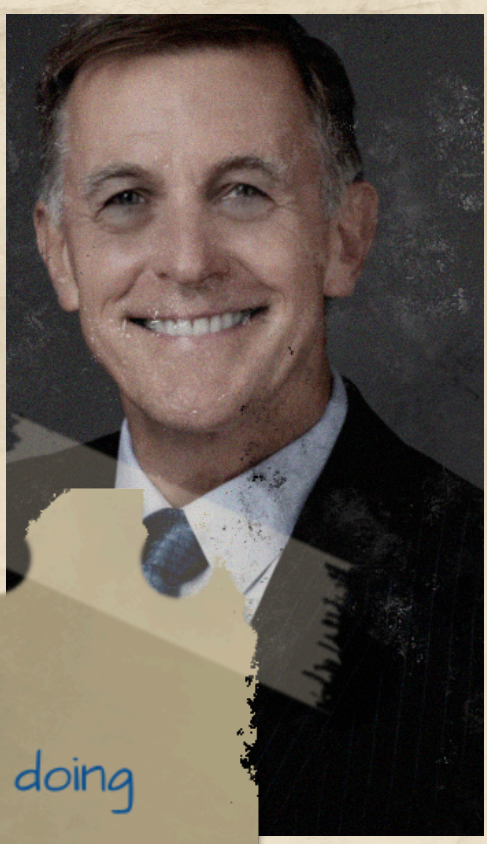
C.W Tech essentially was the "jack of all traits" of companies. Though it started as a tech company, it QUICKLY spiraled into something larger than it could have ever been anticipated. Cartoons, theme parks. So on so forth.

MEET THE STAFF

CARL WALTERS

FOUNDER

The man who brought it all, Carl Walters is the genius inventor who built an empire out of innovative thinking and bringing the world the most modern and up to date creations to make the world just a little bit easier.



For a while the company was doing well, but because of some controversies regarding malfunctioning rides at the theme park, and poor management, profits began to dwindle. The facility itself wasn't in any better condition either- employees beginning to see things that they were not meant to see regarding their government experimentation, and accidents within the work environment leading to lawsuits.

OBSERVATION

There has been recent research into sicknesses going around, and with the recent decrease in soldiers, we desire to see if the CW Tech company would be willing to accept the privilege of researching a way to prevent these issues from going any further for the benefit of the government, as well as America.
The human race is only as fragile as their body is allowed to be, if there is a way to increase the health effects and create a new design of what a healthy and proper human looks like, we could change the world for the better.
We will personally fund the project through tax dollars and spare abandoned projects. Any progress made will increase pay for the month.

OBSERVATION

Progress report to CW Tech's head office team.
When I see the current state of this company, I am embarrassed. Failed experimentation, declining investments, employees getting their hands on classified information. We can't risk a lawsuit coming our way. That's why I am here now with a potential solution to ALL OF IT!
Project: Soulwalkers!

If we can accomplish this, not only can we achieve our government assigned body enhancement project, but we can also reduce the risk of lawsuits and employees on our payroll.
If you allow me to go forward with this, we could save this company, and be revolutionized as the most innovative science discovery facility of all time!

Carl Walters had taken the commissioned experimentation that the government had given them, and decided to use it for his own personal gain as well to act as an answer for everything by creating specially designed beings that he referred to as Soulwalkers. Living beings with consciousness to be able to work for the higher ups in the facility without the need for payment or proper working conditions.

(I feel like I shouldn't have to go over the problems with this project and the mindset behind it.)

OBSERVATION

How exactly Carl Walters was able to accomplish getting a mortal soul of a character that doesn’t exist is beyond our understanding, but more or less, the experiment was a success in terms of accomplishing bringing life to a new body.

Experiment 001 shows signs of hostility and anger, but also vulnerability and fear. We plan to keep him locked inside of a relatively safe location of the facility with plenty of living space for him to explore the place without getting in the way of the scientist's progress. (or get out to the public)

OBSERVATION

Experiment 001 has been examining his surroundings. He wanders within his closed off half of the facility.

Somehow Carl Walters was aware of "cartoon characters" being people that actually exist and have souls, so he decided to use THEM as his guinea pigs. The idea was that if the experiments that they used to continue their inhuman examinations would be more excusable if the people they were performing them on "weren't people"

OBSERVATION

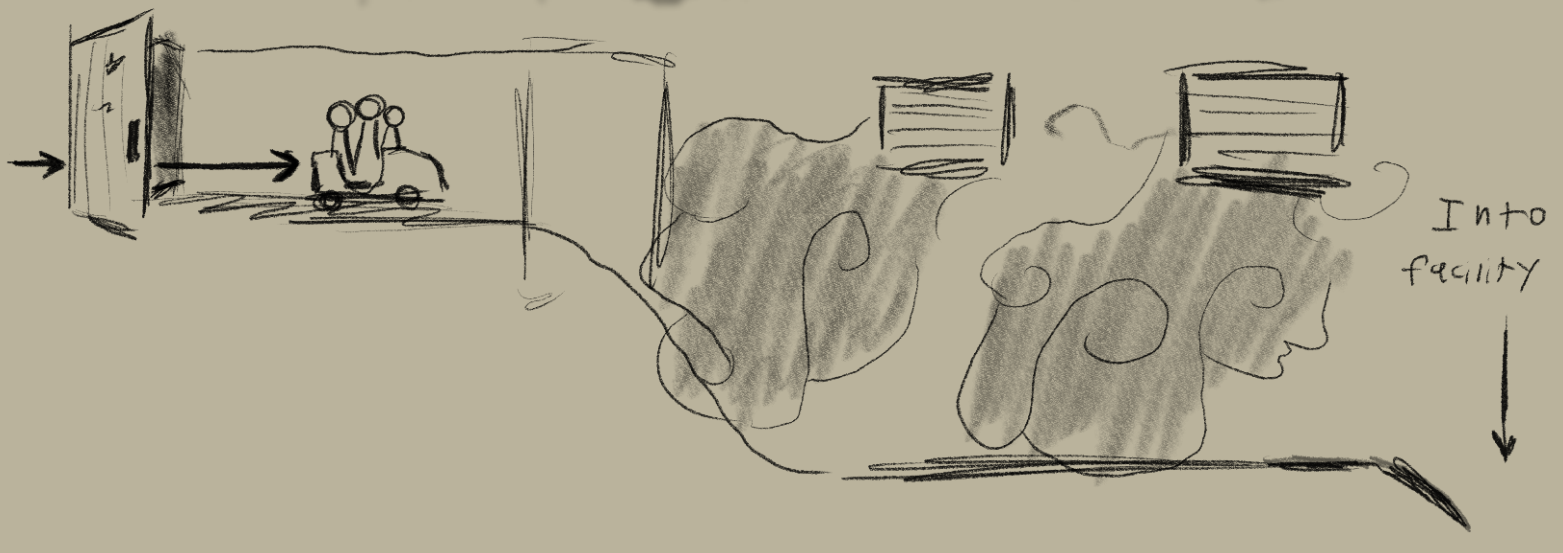
With the success of Experiment 001, I desire a quicker and less incriminating way to get ourselves resources for our Soulwalkers. So I worked with the team, and we decided to create something PERFECT for getting the resources we desire. We shall use the Walters Land theme park as our supply, employees go into a specially designed ride of our choosing, and they are never seen again.

Carl Walters needed more human organs and bodies to use for the organic aspects of the soulwalkers, as a solution he decided to create a specially made exclusive ride in his theme park made to bring people into the facility (which is inside the park) and harvest them.

Ride being built.

The ride would work like this; an exclusive number of people would be put inside the cart, and are slowly taken into this mysterious ride, it would be completely dark, so they have no idea what the ride is like, (or see what's really happening.)

They would drop down into a completely dark room filled with vents that dispense sleeping gas, they're knocked out, and taken down and directed into the facility for experimentation and harvesting. All without the public catching on.



C.W Tech announces a new and interesting ride for their theme park Walters Land!

Walters Land has always been known for their always innovative and mind boggling technologically advanced rides, has announced the production of a BRAND NEW ride that will be different from any other ride that has been seen. Its name is DREAMLAND, a new surreal experience you only have to see to believe!

The ride is exclusively for people who can win the chance to ride it, if a member of the park is lucky enough to win a ticket at the park they can go on the ride.
The limited number of people on the ride is four in one cart, then they ride! There is no information allowed to be given about what the ride is about, or what happens inside, as Carl Walters explained that “It's an experience that should only be experienced on a personal, first hand level.”

Yeah.. sure.. A REAL fun experience.

Only three victims were ever taken through this ride and used for Soulwalker experimentation (that I know of) but for all we know there could have been MUCH more that I wasn't able to get any information on (perhaps more employee experimentation).

OBSERVATION

Experiment 002 has shown signs of GREAT hostility once awoken. However we were able to keep the experiment fairly neutralized due to the extortion of sleeping gas used in the lab for this specific occasion.

He has been designed for special assignments that we must have under our control in order to execute. Further experimentation and psychological testing is needed.

Once Experiment 002 is fully locked away and neutralized, we shall commence our plans on how to get him to properly follow orders without hesitation.

Though I haven't been able to recover EVERYTHING on how exactly Carl Walters was able to harvest Kitty and the gangs souls and put them into the new bodies, I WAS able to find some sketches and notes that Carl Walters had done during this time that could explain a lot.

OBSERVATION

Experiment 003 had awakened with little to NO hostility what so ever. However, he did shove two doctors out of the way to hide away in the corner of the lab before we were able to neutralize him and send him to his cell.

Experiment 003 shows signs of being much more timid and compliant than Experiment 001, however shows no real signs of being malleable like Experiment 002. Instead being fairly stagnant in following orders, but also no resistance being given either.

Further experimentation and testing shall be done.

OBSERVATION

Experiment 003 has become a very useful tool in disposing of evidence, just as he was designed.

Recently the facility was put under a security breach after an employee had discovered about our experiments and tried leaking as much as they could get their hands on out to the world.

They’ve been taken care of.

OBSERVATION

Experiment 004 showed minor agitation and hostility once awakened, but once neutralized, showed much better signs of obedience.

Only somewhat signs of hostility that are there are geared towards scientists and Carl Walters. Further testing may be required to keep her mood in better shape.

OBSERVATION

ON JUNE 17TH, Experiment 001 was able to escape his cell and facility. Breaking out into the outside world. Three other employee members witnessed this and raised the alarm at around 11:00 P.M.

The retrieval team was put together and sent out at around 10:06.

Attached to the side of this paper, is a photo recovery of what little we were able to retrieve from the security footage of Experiment 001's escape.

OBSERVATION

Once experiment 001 was found, the retrieval team had fired away at him and missed every shot, as Experiment 001 was quick to attack.

Experiment 001 ran off into the woods along the facility and the retrieval team split apart to hunt him down.

During this time, Experiment 001 was able to kill TWO of the retrieval members that were in the woods, and make his way towards the rest of the team waiting back at the attack site.

Experiment 001 didn’t last long however, as the retrieval team was ready and neutralized him with sleeping darts.

(SUDDEN BANGING ON DOOR)

CARL WALTERS: IF YOU WANT TO KEEP YOUR JOB THAN BEAT IT, WE'RE BUSY!

DR. BACKARD: Sir, it's me…

DR. BACKARD: I've come with recent information on the matter of what caused the containment breach…

CARL WALTERS: WELL? DON'T LEAVE US HANGING, WHAT IDIOT CAUSED THIS ENTIRE SITUATION AND NEARLY BREACHED OUR ENTIRE AGENDA!

(Backard lays down papers)

DR. BACKARD: No one… We interrogated every person who was on patrol and security lookover that night, there was NOBODY that could have caused this, or was slacking off. We had also analyzed the systems to see if they were suffering from malfunctions or glitches before the containment breach, and nothing. This means that the security system had just SHUT OFF randomly, and only for Experiment 001's specific cell.

CHARLOTTE BETHANY: So you're saying that his holding system just.. STOPPED completely?

TRANSCRIPT

DR BACKARD: Sure as hell seems like it based off of the data history that's been transcribed and archived in our system, but after Experiment 001 escaped it's back up and running perfectly fine now.

CARL WALTERS: That's ridiculous there's no way that a security system like OURS just GOES OUT randomly for NO REASON and then starts working again. Our systems are specially MADE to repel situations like that!

DR BACKARD: Well, there is ONE other little thing about the system's archived data, we were able to print it out for you all to see, and might want to check this out.

(hands the papers over to everyone)

DR BACKWARD: Get a load of this; (recited data printed below-)

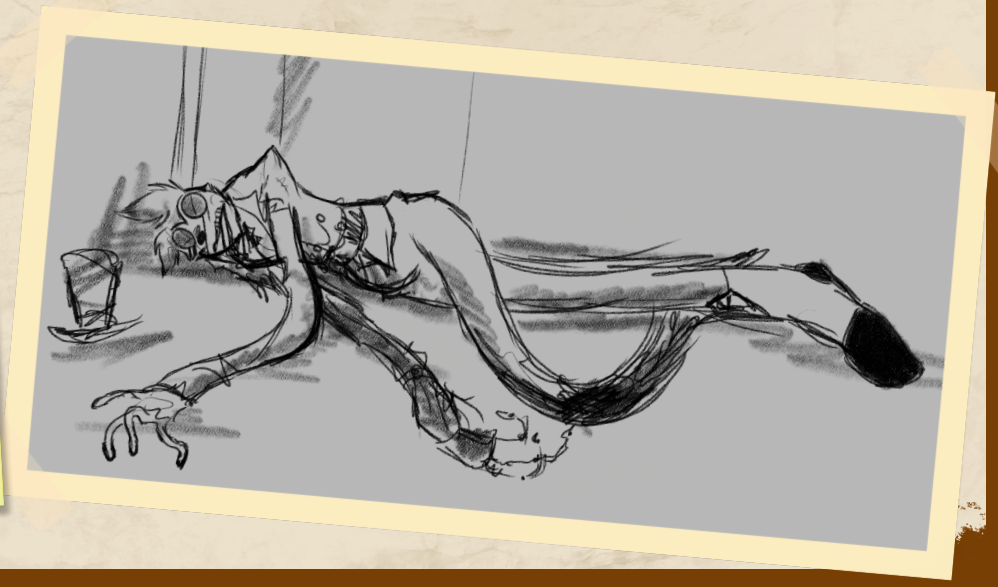
OBSERVATION

Experiment 001 has been returned and properly neutralized. From here on out, extra measures will be taken to make sure that HE, and other experiments don't ever escape like this again, as we still don't know what caused the containment to be breached in the first place.

A little sketch I found from one of the scientists recording the events of Kitty's return to the facility and being put back in his cell before he could wake up.



KITTY THE CAT- Guinea pig. Nothing but a toy for the scientists to play doctor on. He was constantly put under experimentations that would either be a success, or fail miserably, but either way, he was subjected to them, as the other experiments were made MUCH more essential and important than him due to their purposes. While Kitty had NONE.

GILFORD GOAT- Evidence disposal. Gilford was designed to be able to eat and consume anything at an UNBELIEVABLY fast rate. One chomp and your head will be gone, so imagine how fast it will take for him to finish the rest.

He was designed SPECIFICALLY for this. He eats away whatever evidence or people that discovered the truth so that they're isn't any traces left.

BUSTER FOX- security guard. Buster was created to be VERY MUCH like the fox he is. Sneaky and quiet. As well as intelligent and calculated enough to stalk any potential intruders that were able to make their way into the facility, (especially if they reach confidential parts that not even employees are allowed to see such as the labs.)

AMEY CAROL- deceit, she was made to look more presentable and approachable to deceive any stragglers, before revealing her true appearance and going for the attack.

Based off of the bible pages I had discovered earlier in this book (if you've been reading and paying attention than you know what I am talking about) I VERY MUCH believe that Soulless at some point was assisting in freeing the soulwalker experiments.

THEORY: mainly due to the fact that the soulwalker experiments were geared towards TOONS, and Soulless brought them into the world, he saw this as an attack towards his own valued creations.

CARL WALTERS: Log Entry 23, subject, Experiment 001. Experiment 001 has proven himself to be rather stubborn. Always growing more disobedient with each passing moment we try to get him to comply.

KITTY THE CAT: (sinister chuckle)

CARL WALTERS: hm.. Something funny in there?..

KITTY THE CAT: I desire a question to be answered.

CARL WALTERS: Ask if you must.

KITTY THE CAT: Do you feel a thing when taking innocent lives to harvest parts for these husks you call bodies?.. The torturous conditions you put us all under, all for the sake of profit

CARL WALTERS: Interesting, how did you acquire such withheld information?

KITTY THE CAT: Answer the question..

TRANSCRIPT

CARL WALTERS: (chuckles lightly) Very well, there are many great opportunities that are handed to me when it comes to what I achieve. I've killed, anc closed off, and lied to achieve what I desire in becoming something more than what has EVER been done before. I feel excitement at the discoveries I make, for no matter how horrible you may see it, I merely see progress.

KITTY THE CAT: Gotta say I don't feel the same. But I have morals of my own that I need to uphold, and no matter how horrible YOU may see them, I merely see progress.

(NOTE: Kitty's voice changed to sounding like Carl Walters at the end.)

DR. BACKARD: Log Entry 25, subject, Buster Fox-

(Sounds of movement and paper adjustments)

-Hey there Buster, how are you doing?... It's been a good while since you had entered your new body, and you've been making INCREDIBLE progress. I had heard about your social interactions with the other experiments, and it sounds like you are slowly beginning to go back to something akin to your normal behavior before all of this.. So, whaddya think?..

BUSTER FOX: Soulless Gacy will be our savior.

DR. BACKARD: Buster, no one is gonna come save all of you. This is your new home, FOREVER. Whoever this, 'Soulless' guy is. He can't do anything. Kitty's been rambling about him too, but if this continues to spread, then we will gladly keep Kitty separate from the rest of you.

DR. BACKARD: Log Entry 32, subject, Amey Carol-

(sounds of movement and paper adjustments.)

-Hey there Amey, just here to ask a few questions.
AMEY CAROL: “Ask away.

DR. BACKARD: Great-

(shuffles through papers.)

-Alright, now the first question is; are you truly Amey Carol, the character that we’ve been working on for the sake of profit through theme parks and cartoons, and does the same go for your other friends?”

AMEY CAROL: As real as it gets. I know my friends, and they know me. We are not facades. What we didn’t know was how much we were exploited by you people.

DR. BACKARD: Now now, no need for hostility. We just want the basic information that is needed to see if these experiments really had gone the way we were anticipating.

TRANSCRIPT

AMEY CAROL: Well, they've worked. Maybe there's some minor kinks here and there, but it worked, and now you've dug your own grave, for Soulless Gacy has seen your crimes and will now make you all pay when the time comes.

DR. BACKARD: Again with this Soulless stuff, look, whatever this little spirit anomaly is, he's a joke. All he does is minorly interfere with our park's resources and nothing more, whatever attempts he is trying to interfere with our progress, it's nothing. We will continue until we get the results we desire, and no god is gonna stop us from doing so.

As you can very much guess from these last few pages, somehow Soulless was able to connect to them and speak of a day where he would free all of them, seemingly using KITTY as his almost “chosen one”.

This would eventually become the moment that is referred to as “The Day Of Freedom.”

TRANSCRIPT

Attention all C.W Tech employees. There has been a recent security and containment breach, and all technology and electrical systems within the area are down. Park is closed, the risk of guests harm is unlikely. Personnel are to begin enacting emergency evacuation protocols immediately.

1- Leave personal belongings behind.

2- Do not interact with hostile forces / individuals.

3- Do not look out the windows.

4- if available, seek shelter inside a hidden location.

5- use whatever soft materials to cover your body, and remain silent.

6- Do not open doors for any individuals.

7- Do not make eye contact with any hostile forces.

8- Current protection services are at work to make sure that damage is kept to a minimum, and ensure that everyone is evacuated from the facility as safely and quickly as possible.”

Soulless had fulfilled his promise, and COMPLETELY SHUT DOWN the security system inside the facility, freeing every one of the experiments and allowing them to go on a massacre, murdering every single one of the scientists and employees that worked there, innocent or not.

CHAPTER 1: Discovery.

1- (ACCOUNTS OF TESSA BECKER: documentations) LOG 1: In my most recent travels around the lands of this great world, I have come upon the most amazing discovery! A building that completely hides itself from the world.
2- A building that can only be seen from a certain level of distance if close enough. I had simply walked my way through the empty lands, when almost instantly the image of the great building appeared before me. At first I thought that it was just my imagination, I stood back, it was gone, I stood forwards, it was back. I reached out, touching its walls, I COULD FEEL IT, it truly was physically there!
3- I have yet to take a stop inside, for I have yet to know who it belongs to. Yet I find myself intrigued, and shall be returning the very next day for further research.

4- LOG 2: Today was possibly the strangest day of my life. For I have not seen events such as these before, no the less with my own two eyes.
5- I had returned to the building. It was nothing like I had ever seen before, large walls made of unknown material, windows with glass barriers, and doors with such wondrous design. I truly have never seen such architecture in my life from ANY culture. For all I know, it could've been the work of the very gods themselves.
6- I made my way inside once I opened the doors. They slammed shut once more when I entered inside. It was dark inside, with a few bright lights looming over the interior. The lights were nothing like I had ever seen before. No fire, no flames, nothing of the sort. Just glowing rays of light that illuminated everything around them. Some of the lights repeatedly turned on and off, some would fade out, then fade back on. Others stayed on, releasing a humming buzz.
7- The entrance interior was completely made of up chairs and tables. I had laid myself down on one of them, possibly the most comfortable chair I had ever laid down upon, even if it was covered in dirt and dust.
8- I had wandered the many halls of the building, most of which consisted of smaller rooms with chairs and desks full of papers and documents. Many of which I couldn't make out the language of.
9- A pair of stars led down DOWN into the lower levels of the building, more signs of life being found when I had seen half eaten food lying around- at least I think it was food.
10- that's when it happened, a voice rang out from the darkness, one of an unknown language, I ran as fast as I could out of the building before the dwellers could find me.

11- I fear going back and disturbing whoever lives there, yet with luck I could make peace with them and explore more.

12- LOG 3: I've discovered something amazing. LIFE, but not life that I've ever seen before. I had visited once more- and walked down the same route that I had done before, however, the voices started once more, the strange language talking out amongst the darkness. They got louder and louder as the sounds of rushing footsteps entered my line of hearing.
13- That's when I was grabbed by a pair of hands- STRONG hands. They tightened their grip around my waist before PULLING me into the air and into a hole in the ceiling. I shrieked, I couldn't see anything within the darkness of the hole I was dragged into, a hand covered my mouth. Shutting me up as the sounds of the beings below rushed through the hall. They passed by so quickly I could barely make out what they were, but they certainly were not human. Their footsteps echoed throughout the empty halls, growing fainter by the distance as they ravaged through the rest of the building trying to hunt me down.
14- I pulled at the hand, it let go of my mouth fairly easily.
15- "let go!" I shouted.
16- The creature spoke- the same strange sounding language that the others were speaking. I couldn't understand, then, it spoke once more.
17- "You could've been KILLED by them, what are you even DOING here?!"
18- I froze, I couldn't believe what I had heard, it was speaking now in my OWN native language! I lunged myself off of the creature holding me back, a big mistake, as I quickly fell back through the hole I was pulled up towards and began falling towards the ground of the hallway.
19- Two LONG arms reached out, grabbing me once more, before carefully letting me down, the same hands that belong to the creature!
20- The arms grabbed onto the edges of the hole in the ceiling, the rest of the creature connected to said arms slowly lowering down and revealing itself before me.
21- "Do not be afraid.." The being said as it crawled out from the hole.
22- Before me, a being that I never could have even IMAGINED stood before me- long arms and legs- fur along its body, purple-ish gray in color. It wears ragged and torn clothes that I couldn't recognise the culture of.
23- Is observing me- getting close to my face. Watching my expressions fluctuate between fear and curiosity. I'm fairly certain that it smelled me as well. Could it recognise my scent if possible? I backed up against the wall as much as I could, completely at its mercy.

24- “You need to leave, NOW, before they ever find you!” It demanded, and I did as told, I ran for my life towards the exit of the building- never looking back, for now.

CHAPTER 2: Excerpts - 3

1- (Excerpts of Soulless’ own documentations) EXCERPT 1: “Prior to this log- a mortal intruder had broken into the facility when she wasn’t supposed to be there. Making their unwelcome presence known to my all seeing eyes. She had nearly been caught- by the many Soulwalkers that now roam the empty halls of the facility, in search of victims that they can KILL.
2- Naturally, one such Soulwalker, one I have personally favored- was Kitty The Cat, who had saved the foolish female mortal’s life from the others and sent her away, but now the intruder has returned, and is making connections with Kitty. If things go the way I’m hoping, this ‘friendship’ won’t last long at all.”

3- EXCERPT 2: “It has been quite a while now, and the intruder has returned over and over. Becoming a friend to Kitty The Cat. How annoying that is, for connections that make one sensitive to what happens to others makes one weak, and if Kitty falls down this path, I shall be greatly disappointed.
4- They’ve grown quite close. Keeping their friendship a secret from the other soulwalkers, for if they found out, they are sure to eat her insides. If only the intruder were foolish enough to let herself get caught.
5- If my fears are growing closer to what I expect to happen, they are becoming closer than just friends. Despite Kitty’s hideous appearance, his charm truly has never left. Beauty And The Beast, how cliche.”

6- EXCERPT 3: “They’ve grown closer than ever before, despite his monstrous, HIDEOUS appearance, the intruder, Tessa Becker, has fallen in love.
7- This dreaded love of theirs shall soon come to an end once the time is right, their love is a disgrace to what is best for Kitty, and I shall make sure that Kitty is promptly punished for his actions soon when the time comes.
8- Their love will be the very end of them.”

9- EXCERPT 4: “Lust, a word that I have become quite accustomed to over the thousands of years I have spent witnessing the evils of this pathetic miserable realm. A disgusting act of depreciation and degeneracy, what selfish and unholy behavior for one to desire the physical pleasures of another and glorify in that to the highest extent.

10- For this is what they have done, they sin against their savior for the sake of their own false love. They have made the dreaded act of physical fornication, it sickened me to hear every last second of it. Every single little sound I had witnessed made me only want one thing to happen, DEATH, death to them, and they're worthless lives.

11- What they have forgotten is that I've already played my card, for Kitty's body already belongs to me. For he had accepted my power and allowed the transference. His mindscape is as equal to mine, and he wields my power. For he is the one I had chosen to be the great disciple to my cause, but now he has failed, so I shall use him, and when I'm done, he will never disobey my word ever again."

For the past several years I've worked hard to try and get the mortal race to obey every command and influence I give to them, and failed almost every time. The most recent being my own brother, bringing down every inch of my empire before my very eyes before I could even do anything about it. Resulting in a scuffle between the two of us where I ultimately lost. Being trapped forever as a specter invisible to mortal eyes unless using the vessel of another mortal, which I have succeeded in accomplishing. I still have yet to succeed in my mission, and by this point, I've begun to wonder whether or not my methods are what have caused my downfall. It definitely feels like I've been pinned against the wall by God and made to fail over and over again until I understand something that he hasn't yet told me directly. I shall think this through till I can come up with a new fairer system to use in making this realm finally free of the vile sickness taking over existence that is sin. I shall be the one to make sure that God's will is done.

TRANSCRIPT: Little Angels Orphanage Announcement.

“Hello there everyone, my name is Kitty Soulless.”

“When you pay close attention to the people around you in society, what do you see? Sadness, misery, unhappiness in their lives because of the current state of our system and the unfairness of it.”

“I see all of this through my life, and I thought it was time that I finally did something about it!”

“None of the people I have ever seen even showed any legitimate gratitude or luck in their lives whatsoever, and it pains me..”

“Children should grow up knowing that they can fix these issues, to not end up like the very people that brought them into the world, after all, our future RELIES on these children, they should feel loved!”

“That is why, I announce THE LITTLE ANGELS ORPHANAGE SITE!!”

“A place where children don’t just get to live, but also receive proper self funded education, childcare and healthy conditions, and of course, ensuring that children get the families and fates that they properly deserve!”

“A special living site full of teachers, mothers, fathers, and counselors. May every child who enters the gates of this place live the happiest lives they could possibly have!”

“To the point where they might just not want to leave..”

We would like to welcome our new member of E.C.O (Evil Ceasing Organization).

WELCOME TO THE FAMILY!

From here on out, you are gonna be under the caring and watchful eyes of E.C.O operatives. The head of which being KITTY SOULLESS, the founder of E.C.O. He wishes you the best of luck while staying with us, and hopes to bring peace to everything alongside you as his companion.

As an E.C.O agent, you will be starting out being put through training procedures and psychology education in order to understand concepts considering the mortal mind, as well as the differences between what can TRULY be considered right and wrong. Our training will be intense, as well as requiring a LOT of concentration and motivation to get through, but with someone as extraordinary as you, we believe you can do it!

Once an E.C.O agent, you will be placed within MANY different positions that you are skilled in, or desire, such as the acting club for theater nights. Artist club, or in law. All of which can be equally used to entertain our family of agents here when off of the job, as well as in spreading our message out to the world and making everything in the world just ever so slightly more just.

E.C.O is an organization founded by Kitty Soulless, and is an organization dedicated to stopping the spread of evil and injustice in the world for the sake of equal and fair treatment for all through either infesting the system, stopping the increasing crime, or simply fighting for what's right.

This is information that is HEAVILY hidden between both E.C.O AND Kitty Organization, but Kitty was the founder of E.C.O, and used it as essentially a test / project to see if a new method of creating a God controlled world would work in his favor.

He essentially created a WHOLE new system for how society should be handled, and used special education to enforce it on the young minds that he had recruited as his new soldiers for the cause. (Many of the children which had come from his new orphanage he had created SPECIALLY to pick and choose children he saw as special enough to join)

Many of the children that Kitty chose usually had one thing in common, they all had VERY special skills, specially in intelligence.

MIKE FORRESTER ->

Over the next few years, the three children would be under Kitty Soulless' care. Practically acting as their non biological, secret society parent.

They would be put through intense training and education that would benefit in them getting very noble mindsets on how the world should be run, as well as act as the perfect soldiers in spreading his message of world peace.

REPORT: Oswald Disney.

ANALYSIS NOTE: Quite bold and confident in himself.

I have held meetings together with everyone, and I had them all write their names upon a pad to keep count. Every time, it's the same story with Oswald.
I must admit, the lad's got lovely penmanship, and his confidence is quite a breath of fresh air amongst a rather unconfident world.
But for goodness sakes Oswald. I don't need to read your name from the very gates of Heaven.

I wonder how much of this has to do with the fact that he's been nearly forgotten despite his position in society as a toon.

Oswald still has a habit of writing his name big. I got a signature from him once and he took up HALF of the paper.

REPORT: Cathay Becker.

ANALYSIS NOTE: Quite blunt and loudmouthed.

Girl's like a horn in a library. She clearly has never been raised to have proper tone management as she says everything out loud and at a high pitch. If her voice is as loud as it is a normal, I dread the day I hear her actually yell at her highest.
